FOUNDER'S DAY 2023

WE THREW A PARTY

AND BOY, DID YOU SUPPORT IT!

In August of 1939, our little patch of heaven finally reached 100 inhabitants and could legally become a town. In 2023, 84 years later, Fruit Heights City staff and council threw one heck of a Founder's Day party to celebrate the anniversary.

From a car show to a quilt show, a chalk festival to yard games, and food trucks to free ice cream served by none other than Mayor John Pohlman, there was something for everyone. First responders from Farmington Fire and Davis County Sheriff's Office joined the fun, and the 70s tribute band, Spectrum, kept everyone's toes tapping.

Founder's Day Numbers:

- 450+ FREE ice cream cones
- 2 days of Quilt Show
- 2 days of Chalk Festival
- 27 artists for 19 chalk entries
- 1 YCC Bubble Zone
- 9 different yard games
- 50 show cars & 1 scavenger hunt
- 3 food trucks
- 1 awesome band & many groupies

The first ever Founder's Day Quilt Show exceeded ALL expectations. We sincerely thank the amazing organizers, including K'Lyn Lyman, Robyn Austin, Maxine Christensen and Shelda Bennett. You ladies made this happen. THANK YOU!

Quilt Show by the Numbers:

- 370 visitors signed in
- 150 quilts from Fruit Heights shown
- 100 local quilters
- 6 quilts tied and donated to charity
- 25 volunteers

We thank the attendees, and many, MANY volunteers, including quilters, hosts, decorators, ladder builders, and supportive families and husbands.

Year one was spectacular ... we can't wait for year two!
