

Meet R. Shon Stevenson — Fruit Heights City Council Member & Candidate

R. Shon Stevenson is a dedicated family man, 5th-generation Davis County resident, and current Fruit Heights City Council member. With a strong background in military service, education, and civic involvement, Shon brings valuable experience and deep community roots to his continued campaign.

Currently serving as a Fruit Heights City Council member, Shon advocates for transparent leadership, smart growth, and community engagement. Living in Fruit Heights for the past seven years, Shon understands the city's unique character and is committed to preserving its charm while planning thoughtfully for the future.

Shon served 11 years in the military, completing both humanitarian and combat deployments. His service instilled a strong sense of duty, discipline, and public responsibility—values he brings to every decision as a public servant.

- As a candidate, Shon is focused on:
- Encouraging community involvement
- Supporting conservative growth
- Enhancing public safety
- Promoting fiscal responsibility and open governance
- Clear transparent communication

Shon is committed to leading with integrity and ensuring Fruit Heights remains a safe, vibrant, and welcoming place for all.
